

Scottish Improvement Science Collaborating Centre
Researching improvement in health and social care

The Improvement Research Network has been set up through the Q Community and the Scottish Improvement Science Collaborating Centre (SISCC). It brings together improvement practitioners and researchers to facilitate collaboration through the sharing of ideas, challenges and knowledge and enhance improvement practice across the UK.

If you're interested in enhancing improvement activities and would like to find out more about how this Network could benefit your practice or research - please join us on Thursday 23 January 2020, 1 - 4pm
